

Focused Heart and Lung Ultrasound Course

Aims :

- To gain theoretical and practical skills in focused echocardiography and basics of chest ultrasound and ultrasound guided intervention in Critical Care setting
- Being able to identify and differentiate main cardiac pathologies, normal thoracic anatomy from common diseases

Day to include :

Hands-on sessions with volunteers and simulation:

- How to scan and get basic views
- LV and RV assessment
- Pericardial effusion and tamponade
- Case based discussion
- How to recognise and differentiate pleural effusion
- Identify the basic 2D sonography of Lung US as A-Lines, B- Lines, Lung Sliding, and Lung Point & Lung Pulse
- Debrief and case base discussion after each hands-on session

When

1st December 2022

Where

Maddingley Hall,
Cambridge, CB23 8AQ

Contact

Royal Papworth Professional Development

papworth.cpdevents@nhs.net

Who should attend?

Medical and Allied Health Professionals working in Intensive Care, Anaesthesia, Acute or Emergency Medicine

Registration fees

£300.00

Papworth Trainees

£250.00

Faculty led by:

Dr Antonio Rubino, Consultant in Cardiothoracic Anaesthesia

Stefanie Curry, Critical Care
Scientist

Limited number of spaces available in order to maintain social distancing – book early to avoid disappointment

Risk of cancellation due to Covid-19: registration fee will be refunded. Travel and accommodation costs will remain the responsibility of the individual attendee

To book a place register online: <https://online.royalpapworth.nhs.uk/>

